GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS FRY TO 911 BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Margie Fry of Apex to the North Carolina 911 Board.

Fry is the vice president of voice and security operations at Time Warner Cable. She is a member of the Women in Cable Telecommunications, National Association for Multi-Ethnicity in Communications and a registered branch manager for Time Warner Cable Security in East Carolina. Fry attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif.

The board develops the 911 State Plan, administers the 911 Fund and the monthly 911 service charge, distributes revenue in the 911 Fund, establishes policies and procedures to fund advisory services and training and investigates revenues and expenditures. The board has 17 members, some serving six-year terms and others serving four-year terms. The governor appoints four members. The state's chief information officer appoints one member and the Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoint six members.
